

JD & BRIDGET

It's been pretty much rock and more rock since JD got into radio. From his air work to programming radio stations he's kept busy. Co-hosting with Bridget now is one of his greatest thrills since they have so much fun working together. When not rocking the listeners JD is an avid sports fan. Football, hockey, basketball, and especially baseball since he played it through college. Movies are his other love getting swept away with the latest action adventure blockbuster and a big bucket of popcorn.

Bridget took the college route to get in radio, graduating with a degree in Radio & Television. Ever since she's produced and hosted many air shifts playing classic rock to oldies. Bridget loves to be out-and-about, whether it's rooting for the home team, checking out the latest watering hole, or eating at the newest restaurant in town. It's always good beer drinking weather by the way. When it comes to Bridget's taste in music, she's an unapologetic Rockhead. Old rock, new rock, she loves it all.
